

The Administration, Management, And Supervision of Field Training & Evaluation Programs

November 16-18, 2010

Course Description:

The approach to this course is indeed unique! Applicants for admission are mailed a pre-program questionnaire, which lists a variety of field training issues that are known to exist. The questionnaire is formatted so that each respondent may indicate which of the issues are of concern to them and/or their organization and in a priority order. It is from the responses to these questionnaires that the curriculum for the course is developed. In this way, each program is "customized" for that program's participants.

Topics of Instruction include:
